PLEASANT
STAY

FINEST CULINARY DELIGHTS

What more could the heart desire ... — In the “Reinhardt’s im Schloss” Restaurant and Museum Café managed with loving care by Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt, the edifice’s special flair is combined with innovative and modern cuisine, whereby fresh ingredients and highest quality are always in the center of the culinary delights. — The stylish furnishing with artistic accents lends the rooms a characteristic charm which also flows out onto the terrace in the manor’s courtyard during the warm summer months.

Utterly unforgettable — The Hotel Resort Schloss Auerstedt offers a one-of-a-kind framework for your dream wedding. In the middle of the Manor's garden, between the wine terrace and the natural pond, stands the Brazilian style maloca hall - the perfect place to reunite family and friends.

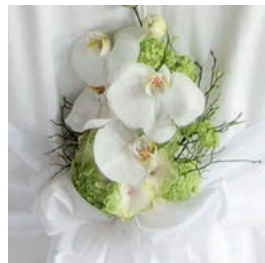

ENCHANTING FEASTS

Fairytale settings for your most special moment — The lovingly designed St. Vitus Peace Church right next to the Hotel Resort Schloss Auerstedt will make your church wedding a magical moment. White chairs, juicy grapevines, and splendid blossoms – open-air weddings in the picturesque idyll directly in front of the maloca hall will create unique recollections. — The glass pavilion at the Manor in its noble modern glass and wood look conjures up an image which is just as extraordinary.

MAGICAL
WEDDINGS

FRESH THOUGHTS

For all of those who wish to convene creatively and actively in small groups, Auerstedt Manor offers a stimulating atmosphere for innovative ideas. Historic rooms with medieval arches/vaults conjure up an inspiring environment. The Manor's garden and the nearby Willow Rod Palace ("Auerworldpalast") provide a multitude of refreshing impressions. — And our variegated programs will give your convention a fitting framework. From wine tasting to Segway tours to archery – we will be happy to advise you!

Lots of room for history: the chronicle of tiny Auerstedt can be traced in various ways in Auerstedt's museum world. — The museum of local history inside the manor is dedicated not only to the twin battles of Jena and Auerstedt (1806), but also to the history of life in the village and Thuringian customs. On the other side of the courtyard from the manor, 17 historic vehicles for travelling can be marveled at in the Coach Museum – among them the wedding coach of Grand Princess Maria Pavlovna.

EXPERIENCE
HISTORY

The Willow Rod Palace – nicknamed “Auerworld-palast” – with its futuristic appearance created in 1998 under the direction of Swiss architect Marcel Kalberer is one of the largest living willow domes to this day. The constantly growing natural building has meanwhile developed into a veritable magnet for visitors. — The meditative strength of the palace inspires hikers and bikers, convention guests, and the visitors to the annual “Auerworld Festival”. It is particularly popular among newlyweds as a motif for photographs.

INSPIRING EXCURSIONS

There's a lot to discover in the middle of Germany: Weimar, the capital of German Classicism; Naumburg, with its famous 800 year-old cathedral; the bell founder town of Apolda; and Jena, with its fascinating Zeiss-Planetarium. A tour with a canoe or an in-flatable raft can show you the region from a highly different perspective. And for the kids? Leisure fun in Eckartsberga, the adventure zoo in Memleben, the "Koala" forest for climbing in Naumburg, Nebra Ark, and much more – all around Auerstedt!

DREAMY IDYLL

The extraordinary natural and cultural landscape of the Tuscany of the East invites you to explore it. The biking triangle of the Ilm River Valley leads through the Thuringian wine gate in Bad Sulza past idyllic vineyards directly onto the "Ilm Radweg" Ilm Valley bicycle path. You can also take wonderful strolls here, go hiking, or ride on a Segway.

A tour with a canoe or a rubber raft can show you the region from a different perspective. The Napoleon Hiking Trail is studded with many monuments and sights worth seeing.

History comes alive tracking down the vestiges of the historic twin battle of Jena and Auerstedt in 1806.

Nose above, ears under water — A work of genius for regular guests, unusual for new ones: In the Toskana Therme Bad Sulza, our guests float on their backs in warm thermal salt water, moving as in a dream. Visitors to the Toskana Therme have a good reason for assuming this posture – for music is playing under water! Pulsating light displays, always discreet and ever-changing, round off our musical bathing. The sauna world of the Toskana Therme Bad Sulza is elegantly designed; architecture and furnishings radiate spaciousness, breadth and quietude. From “steam” to “Finnish” – everything that belongs to taking a sauna – and more – is here for you.
